

Children, Health and the Law

Cost: £175 (includes lunch, tea and coffee)

£150 for ALC members £125 for non lawyers
6 CPD hours (English Law Society, English Bar and Jersey Law Society)

Friday October 3rd 2014

Radisson Blu Waterfront Hotel, Jersey 9.00am - 5.30pm

*Special rates available at the Radisson for those requiring overnight accommodation
Please contact the hotel directly on 01534 671100*

Keynote Speaker: Mr Justice Hayden
Chair: Frances Judd QC (Harcourt Chambers)

Children, Health and the Law

'Children, Health and the Law' is aimed at lawyers, social workers, guardians, the medical profession and judges. The conference will explore how the medical and legal professions work together to protect children.

Sessions Include:

- The effects of maltreatment and parental conflict on children's mental health
 - Recognising early signs of abuse and early intervention
- Transition planning for young people in care with continuing health needs
 - Safeguarding in an acute setting
 - The importance of GPs working with Social Services
 - Legal aspects of consent to medical treatment
- Should doctors know more about the law and lawyers know more about medicine - non accidental injury
- The impact of MASH on joined up thinking for children with health needs

Speakers Include:

- Mr Justice Hayden
- Elizabeth Isaacs QC, St Ives Chambers
- Penny Owston, Non - Executive Director at United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
- Nick Goodwin QC, Harcourt Chambers
- Dr Michael Wailoo, LLB retired Paediatrician, Leicester
- Sean Pontin, Children's Service, Jersey
- Dr Miriam Silver, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Milton Keynes
- Dorothy Simon, NSPCC External Neglect Advisory Group, Essex Legal Services
- Dr Bryan Lean, Consultant Paediatrician, Guernsey

Full details of the programme can be found here

Please click here to make your booking.

If you have any queries regarding the conference or the booking process please contact our team by email or by phoning 01534 767764

For terms and conditions, please refer to the appropriate section on our website